Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" Postcard No. 7632

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

After the original painting by H. B. WIMBUSH.

I wanted to get you a P.C. of Brackley as you have memories connected with it, but I have been upstairs for 2 weeks with bad throat & cold so have not been able to get about. We leave here on Wednesday for London as I have to go to Oculist & Dentist. I don't know what our permanent add. then will be but the Gibsons address which I gave you will always find us. I hope you are getting benefit from the treatment & not getting much pain. Love from both. A. Anderson.
Aug 22nd. Syresham Rectory, Brackley, Northants.

By Appointment

Broughton Castle stands in a picturesque position on a [illegible] piece of ground by the little river Sorbrook. Artificial channels have conducted the water right round the building, thus entitling it to rank as a "moated castle." It is the seat of Lord Saye and Sele, in the stirring fortunes of whose house it has played a considerable part. The house is of an Elizabethan style of architecture, though the oldest parts are [illegible] century construction.
